1. HIGHER EDUCATION

Studying at an Australian university or private college is a unique experience that will change your life forever. Aside from the obvious benefits of studying DownUnder (sun, sea, and social life), Australia has an innovative and globally respected education system, with a strong focus on employability after graduation.

Each year, over 300,000 students travel to Australia to study across 160 institutions offering higher education. With thousands of courses on offer, and so many choices of location and institution, it can be hard to know where to start.

GO STUDY Australia are the experts in Australian education. Our dedicated team can help you select the best course to meet your goals - whether it be a short term experience, or long term vision to stay in Australia.

2. WHAT IS HIGHER EDUCATION?

Higher Education is a type of qualification that you would traditionally associate with universities, but it may also be offered by approved private providers.

Bachelors, Masters, PhD/Doctoral degrees...

Qualifications can be delivered through universities, private institutions or public institutions such as TAFE. The courses range in duration between 1-3 years. Many offer accelerated programs or short term study abroad which are great for summer study programs.

HOW IS IT DIFFERENT FROM VOCATIONAL STUDIES?

- Vocational courses focus more practical skills whereas Higher Education courses offer both academic and practical training with a deeper level of theoretical knowledge learned
- Vocational studies have a lower ranking to Higher Education by the standards of the Australian Qualifications Framework - but that doesn't mean they are worse, it just means the outcomes are different
- Vocational courses are needed for skill based work: think mechanic, electrician, fitness which require specialised skills
